“I went from feeling alone in my quest to feeling supported spiritually and professionally, basking in my awesomeness, completely aligned with my purpose, and equipped with a detailed “how-to” attract my ideal client. Oh, and I might also mention this: In the 3 months working with Shayla, I’ve TRIPLED my income!”

Nancy Chiappe, owner of Serenity Wellness for Women

“My favorite thing about Shayla is that she’s real. She doesn’t have a fake bone in her body and she genuinely cares about her clients and their success. She’s like a mom, a best friend, and a therapist in one. She doesn’t try to change you or mold you in any way. She just helps you tap into the best parts of yourself and teaches you how to use them to your advantage. I just passed my business’ one year anniversary. I now only work 20 hours a week, I took my first real vacation in years to Cabo, and last month I made seventeen thousand dollars. You’re an idiot if you don’t work with Shayla.”
